

John Shedd
Chief Information and Technology Officer
Arbitration Forums, Inc.

John joined Arbitration Forums, Inc. (AF) in September 2014, bringing more than 30 years of technology experience and leadership to the role.

Prior to joining AF, John served as vice president of technology for Catalina Marketing, leading systems development and delivery management. Preceding that, he was an operating vice president of technology for HSN.

John's primary area of responsibility with AF is to direct all technology functions at AF, which includes but is not limited to Application Development and Technology Infrastructure. John also administers safeguards to secure AF's information resources, including hardware, software, and company and member data.

John obtained his BS in information systems at the University of South Florida.

John is active in the technology community and serves as a board member for the Tampa Bay Technology Forum.
