

Kathy Mahne
President & CEO
Arbitration Forums, Inc.

Kathy Mahne is President and CEO of Arbitration Forums, Inc. (AF), the nation's largest arbitration services provider. Kathy joined AF in January 2017 after thirty-two years with Allstate Insurance, where she was senior vice president claims.

Kathy is an experienced insurance executive who began her career in 1984 with Allstate Insurance Company, where she served in a progression of leadership roles in both operations and staff. As senior vice president claims, Kathy was responsible for the strategic design and implementation of claim processes and quality assurance countrywide.

Additionally, Kathy was an active member of industry committees, including the Insurance Services Organization and Insurance Research Council Claims Committee. She was also a board member for Women in Need Growing Stronger (WINGS), which serves Chicagoland victims and families of domestic violence. Kathy also served on the AF board for five years, most recently as board chair.

She obtained her bachelor's degree in business and economics from Lafayette College in Easton, Pennsylvania.

