

Ken Butler, SPHR

Director of Human Resources and Facilities

Ken joined Arbitration Forums, Inc. (AF) in October 2001. He currently directs human resources functions including employee recruitment, payroll, benefits, employee relations, member/employee training, and corporate facilities.

Prior to joining AF, Ken has held executive and senior human resources positions with the Starbucks Corporation, Burger King Corporation, and Alliance Entertainment Corporation.

Ken attended Boston University and holds a Master's degree in business administration from the University of Miami. He is certified as a senior practitioner of human resources by the Human Resources Certification Institute, a certified compensation professional, and holds numerous instructor certifications. He has been recognized by the State of Florida as having created programs assisting disabled citizens with gaining employment.

Ken lives with his wife Syndi and their three children in Valrico, Florida.